

Mr. Fjelstad is the founder of Verdant Electronics and co-founder of SiliconPipe, and has more than 35 years of experience in the field of electronic interconnections. He has authored several books on the subject and is a frequent contributor to industry magazines. He also has more than 170 U.S. patents either issued or pending. In addition, Mr. Fjelstad has received the prestigious IPC Presidents Award and was recognized in an industry poll as one the most influential people in the electronics interconnection industry.