

Mr. Mirabito is a member of Mintz Levin's Boston office and a founding partner and co-chair of its Intellectual Property Law Section. Prior to joining Mintz Levin, he was a partner at Wolf, Greenfield & Sacks, and earlier at Gaston & Snow. He began his career as an examiner in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). He was also in-house counsel for Westinghouse Electric, where he was responsible for IP licensing. Earlier he was an attorney with the U.S. International Trade Commission, where he was responsible for actions brought under Section 337. He holds an engineering degree as well as a law degree.

Ms. Peters is an associate in Mintz Levin's Intellectual Property Section. Her work involves patent prosecution—primarily in mechanical arts, business methods and electronics. She and Mr. Mirabito have both been admitted to practice before the USPTO and are members of the Massachusetts Bar.
