

Fawzi Behmann
President
TelNet Management Consulting

Fawzi is a visionary, thought leader, author, entrepreneur and contributor in advancing adoption of technology in serving humanity. Fawzi spent over 35 years in industry and held various executive and leadership positions with Tier 1 companies in the areas of communications and networks spanning Global Service Provider, Communications & Networking equipment product line management, and marketing of SoC for semiconductors in both US and Canada.

Fawzi is passionate about technology automation and has founded TelNet Management Consulting Inc. in 2009 offering consulting services in the areas of disruptive technologies trends & positioning and help develop showcase proof of concept and commercialization of products and solutions impacting use cases in key markets such as fitness & healthcare, smart homes/building, smart energy, smart infrastructure and smart cities.

Fawzi is currently the IEEE Central Texas Chair with over 4,000 members, Chair of Region 5 Conference committee, Vice-Chair of IEEE ComSoc-NA, Chair of Austin chapters for ComSoc & Signal Processing and Computer & EMBS. He is a Board member of Austin City UP and other organizations. Fawzi's most recent awards are IEEE USA Regional Outstanding Leadership and R5 Outstanding Large Section.

Fawzi holds a Bachelor of Science with honors and distinction from Concordia University, Montreal, QC, a Masters in Computer Science from University of Waterloo, Waterloo, ON, and an Executive MBA from Queens University, ON, Canada.