

Stephen Schoppe Biography

Stephen Schoppe is the co-founder of Process Sciences, Inc. (PSI) which provides rework/repair and laboratory services to the electronic assembly industry. During his 25 years of service to PSI, he has served as process engineer, sales manager and is currently the President. Stephen has written papers and given presentations at SMI, Nepcon and SMTA International on the topic of BGA rework. He has also presented talks on laboratory analysis techniques at local organizational meetings and for captive customer audiences.